

There's Too Much Adult
(Ego) in Youth Sports

My Thesis

- Every youth sports problem can be traced to WAAC and/or PAAC mentalities and policies.

A Snapshot of Youth Sports From Outer Space Aliens

- This is supposed to be fun?
 - Angry youth sports parents yelling at volunteer coaches, teenage game officials, and worst of all: their own kids for not playing better.
 - Coaches acting like Vince Lombardi or Bobby Knight and yelling at 10-year-old kids like they're pro athletes.
 - Kids waking up on game day with a nervous stomach because they believe they have to perform well to get love and acceptance from their parents.
